OVERALL RISK RATING

HIGH

Summary of findings

The risk evaluation of PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS ACCOUNTANTS N.V. Indicates high concern levels, substantial market perception together with critical public record controversies documented in public records. Additionally, there are concerns about major accountability measures coupled with notable sovereign interest presence introducing sovereign influence considerations. Another area of note is concerning trade compliance measures in addition to serious politically exposed personals screening results potentially creating conflicts of interest. Furthermore, the assessment identified conventional economic indicators affecting liquidity positions. Regarding other risk factors, the supplier shows moderate risk indicators in social governance compliance and cyber resilience. The findings indicate a need for significant risk reduction strategies and close oversight.
